

CERTIFICATE OF COMPLETION

Subham Giri

We are pleased to acknowledge your successful completion of the course "GSAP Mastery" offered by Udemy. Your commitment to mastering advanced animation techniques using GreenSock Animation Platform (GSAP) demonstrates not only technical excellence but also a passion for bringing interactivity and motion to modern web experiences.

Throughout this course, you explored key GSAP concepts, including timeline control, scroll-based animation, SVG transformations, and smooth performance optimization. Your dedication to hands-on practice and continuous learning reflects a strong drive to stay ahead in the world of front-end development and interactive UI/UX design.

We hope the knowledge and skills gained from this course empower you to create visually stunning, fluid, and immersive digital experiences.

We applaud your achievement and encourage you to keep exploring, animating, and building the future of the web.
